

BIG QUESTION: Why were there so many orphans during George's time?

GALLERY WALK

Have students examine images from the Progressive Era. Consider works from photographers like Jacob Riis. Hang the images around the classroom and have students walk from one to the next, coming up with their own titles for the images. Have students select one picture and write a backstory to what they see in that picture.

Jacob Riis Links:

- Jacob Riis (britannica.com)
- Jacob Riis - Progressive Era Photographer (International Center of Photography)

