

BIG IDEA: How did George's experiences shape the man he became?

IF I WAS PRESIDENT

George Edwin Taylor was the first African American to run for President. He fought for equal rights for all Americans and pensions for those who had been enslaved. If you were to be President, what kinds of things would you do or change? Why?

Have students use construction paper with a picture of them in the middle. They should list their ideas around their picture.

IF I WAS PRESIDENT...
